List of Volunteer/Engagement Opportunities at Washington Nonprofits – Fall 2020

Board of Directors: Washington Nonprofits is governed by a diverse board of nonprofit leaders from across the state of Washington.

Policy Committee: This committee includes board and non-board members. The committee discusses nonprofit policy issues and recommends positions to the Washington Nonprofits Board.

Advocates: Washington Nonprofits invites nonprofit leaders to join us in meetings with elected officials to help them understand the work that nonprofits do in our communities. Please let us know if you are interested in joining in this effort.

Equity Committee: This committee includes board and non-board members. The committee advises on strategy and undertakes initiatives that will result in a more equitable organization, including internal reforms as well as changes to programming and other externally facing aspects of the organization.

Nonprofit Network Leadership: Local energy is required to maintain momentum for the locally-controlled Nonprofit Networks that are supported by and affiliated with Washington Nonprofits: Spokane Nonprofit Network, One River Nonprofit Network (Pend Oreille County), Ferry and Stevens County Nonprofit Group, Central Washington Nonprofit Network (Yakima), and Kittitas County Nonprofit Group.

Washington State Nonprofit Conference Host Committee: Assist in planning the conference and as a community ambassador to encourage attendance and sponsorship.

Washington State Nonprofit Conference Workshop Selection Committee: Review workshop proposals and recommend workshops to present.

Washington State Nonprofit Conference Scholarship Selection Committee: Serve on selection committee for scholarships.

Washington State Nonprofit Conference Event Volunteer: Various volunteer roles on the day of the conference, including set-up, greeting, registration, room host and clean-up. (Presenters also volunteer their time)

Central Washington Conference for the Greater Good Host Committee: Local planning and host committee. The committee provides leadership to determine the program and choose speakers, solicits sponsors and assists in promoting the event through their community networks.
Central Washington Conference for the Greater Good Event Volunteer: Various volunteer roles on the day of the conference.

Special Projects: Ad hoc committees form from time to time to assist Washington Nonprofits with special projects such as developing curriculum or planning a special event.

Interns: Washington Nonprofits occasionally hosts academic interns, usually at the graduate level.

Coming soon:
Affinity Group Leadership: Washington Nonprofits is planning to set up several affinity groups within its members to connect nonprofit folks in the same role (Executive Directors, Volunteer Managers), region or field of service. We will be seeking people to plan and facilitate meetings and moderate online networking groups.
